FROGS AND A SNAKE

Ganesh Haloi

National Book Trust, India

Green frogs, brown frogs, big frogs, little frogs, are playing all around.

The snake watches through the thick green grass.
"Look out!" screech the birds, and fly off.

The frogs leap....

The snake chases them.

The snake almost catches the brown frog...

but the brown frog leaps over the green frog and jumps into the pond. The green frog jumps in, too.

The snake finds only ripples in the pond. He stops, thinks for a while...

The green frog raises its head.

In a flash the snake goes after him
swimming as fast as he can.

The snake swallows the green frog.

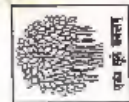

The snake is very pleased with himself. But all is not over with the green frog yet....

With a big leap, the frog bursts out and...
